

Asthma Update: Breathing New Life Into an Old Topic

Stephanie Tsang, MD FRCPC

Dr. Stephanie Tsang completed her Bachelors of Science in Pharmacy and Doctor of Medicine degree at the University of British Columbia. She continued her training there and completed the Internal Medicine and Respiratory fellowship program where she was certified by the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada. Dr. Tsang currently holds a position as Internal Medicine and Respiratory staff physician at Ridge Meadows Hospital in Maple Ridge. In addition, she has a separate outpatient clinic in Burnaby, which is a multidisciplinary clinic, shared with other internal medicine subspecialists. New initiatives there includes a joint Allergist-Respirologist Asthma Clinic to provide comprehensive work up. Dr. Tsang is an advocate for both patient and general practitioner education in common respiratory disorders and its optimal management.
